Lieutenant G. A. Meredith, of the Manchester Grays, has tendered to the Governor his resignation of his commission in the company. Captain Ogden has already sent in his resignation, and should both officers be relieved it is not at al improbable that the company will go to pieces in a hurry. If Captain ogden's resignation is accepted and Lieutenan Meredith remains in the company, he will certainly be elected captain. But many of the men say if the popular lieutenant insists on leaving the company they will lose all interest in it and not attend

VIRGINIA MAY DECLINE TO MEET CAROLINA IN FUTURE.

Charge That His Appearance in

"Keohler, you shall be free;

This refrain may prove to be more significant than was apparent to those to whom it was made quite familiar in the Jefferson dining-room Thursday evening by friends of the orange and blue, who were, in good nature, but with great perseverance, guying their triumphant opponents from North Carolina

Koehler played left end for Carolina in the game Thanksgiving-Day, and contributed quite largely to the victory won by the boys of white and blue over Virginia's talked entertainingly and instructively of books—what to read and how to read.

These Friday evening entertainments

It has since developed, as was not generally become that pickt that Kochler's are proving excellent features. They were suggested by Dr. W. P. Mathews, who had been the subject of correspondence before the contest opened, which may possibly break up the annual meetings between the long-haired athletes of the two universities, which have come to be the feature of the Thanksgiving-Day cele-

WHY VIRGINIA PROTESTED. There were exaggerated reports in circulation here yesterday as to the pature of what had passed between the management of the two teams as to Koehler's playing and the probable result. The Disginia to play Carolina again, the facts in the case are these: The morning before the game, acting under the direction of the Advisory Committee of the General Athletic Association, Mr. Davis, the presi-dent of the association, addressed a let-ter to Mr. Julian S. Carr, Jr., president of the University of North Carolina Athletic Association, notifying him that if Carolina should play Koehler, who was known to be a professional athlete, all future athletic relations in foot-ball, bas ball, etc., would be broken off. Mr.

"No reply was received, and Koehler was put in and played throughout the contest. Since the game, no further action has been taken in the matter, as there tion has been taken in the matter, as there has not yet been a meeting of the Advisory Committee. Koehler, it is said, formerly played on the foot-ball eleven of the Orange Athletic Club, of East Orange, N. J., to which place he is said to have returned immediately after Thursday's came."

DENIAL FROM CAPTAIN ROGERS. It will be seen from this special that the charge is that of violating the interollegiate rules, which bar professionals from playing on college and university teams. The North Carolina management does not seem to have been aware that itse it was playing a man whose appearance was forbidden under college ethics. The team left for Chapel Hill late Thursday night, but Captain Rogers was quoted yesterday as having made the following statement before taking his departure:

"Koehler is not a professional, and he was as legitimate a player as there was on the North Carolina team, so far as I know. He came from Montclair, N. J. and matriculated at the University of North Carolina in the law department. He has been there all last session. He roomed with me, and I can state em-phatically that if there is any truth in Virginia's charge that he is in the pro-fessional class, I am entirely ignorant of

From this it would appear that the information on which Virginia based its action challenging Koehler may pos-sibly have been misleading. It is not be-lieved here that either of the teams has

THE WAR INQUIRY. PROGRESS OF THE INVESTIGATION

AT NEW YORK. REGULATIONS OF RED CROSS SOCIETY

If a Nurse Should See an Officer Take the Life of One of His Men, She Could Not Accuse the Officer of Murder.

NEW YORK, November 25.-The Rev. Dwight Galloupe, of Jersey City, who went the front as chaplain of the Ninth inited States Infantry, testified before the War Investigating Commission today. He contradicted statements made about confusion at Tampa. He spoke in the highest terms of the behavior of the medical men in Cuba.

James P. Holmes, who served in the Seventy-first New York Regiment, was xamined. He was taken sick at Sanlago, and is still in poor health. He was illowed to lie on a couch while giving his testimony. He told of his experiences with the regiment, and complained that no attention was paid to the sick on the transport Grand Duchess. Holmes said the volunteers were treated with far less onsideration than the regulars. For everal weeks there was no regular food his regiment, and in his own company there was no regularly organized mess from the time the regiment reached ampa until it was mustered out. Replying to questions by General aver, Holmes said he did not blame e government so much as he blamed the inefficiency, carelessness, and selfish-ness of the regimental officers. Mrs. Mary Hatch Willard, who was stationed at Camp Wikoff with the Red Cross Auxiliary Association, described the amp in its brightest light. "In not one astance," said Mrs. Willard, "did I know soon as it was brought to the attention of the proper officers." QUININE FOR ST. VITUS'S DANCE.

Levi S. Krauss, private of Company K. Ninth New York Regiment, complained that he was not treated properly by the doctors at the Chickamauga Camp. Overexertion at drill brought on a nervous affection on June 17th. He appealed to the regimental surgeon, Dr. exertion subbard, and the Doctor said he was 'Later I was examined by another doc-

I offered Dr. Lagarde, at the Siboney hospital, the services of the Red Cross nurses, and he said he had nurses enough, but he lacked Our relations with the medical cers of the army were most cordial.

Lesser said the wounded promptly and scientifically attended to, and that the surgeons generally acted splendidly. None of the fever patients were without sheets. Those of the sick who slept in the open air were not suffering from fever, and the night air was good for them.

"As far as I know," said Dr. Lesser, "none of the sick at Siboney suffered from lack of medicine. There was a scarcity of food for the sick, I believe. There were no supplies of sick food, except those of the Red-Cross Society."

Asked by Dr. Conner to tell what he knew of the condition of the transport Concho, and of the precautions taken in selecting the men fit to be sent home to the United States, Dr. Lesser said the transport was in excellent sanitary condition, was well found in food and medical supplies, and only the men who wer actually convalescent were sent aboard The trouble at sea was occasioned by the relapse caused by the change of air "Did the supply of food and medicines suffice for those on board?" asked Dr

CAN'T CRITICISE GOVERNMENT. "I cannot answer that question. The Red-Cross regulations do not permit me to criticise the government."
"You are not asked to criticise."

"I cannot tell if the supply was suffi-cient or not, without criticising those who put the supplies on board. I believe that not one death occurred on board the Concho but that was caused by the pa tient himself or by the mistaken kindnes of friends. There were more deaths of yellow-fever convalescents from overfeed-ing than from the effect of the disease

"If a Red Cross nurse should see an officer take the life of one of his men, would she be permitted to accuse the offi-cer of murder?" asked General Beaver. "Could she tell what she saw?"

TALK OF CONTESTS.

A GOOD DEAL OF IT FROM DEFEAT. ED CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.

NOTICES FROM VIRGINIA

The Time Therefor Expires Thirty Days After Issuance of Certificate-Trigg Enterprise 0. K .- Lee, if Any body, fo He Governor of Cuba.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 25. (Special.)-So far no notices of contests have been filed with the Clerk of the House from Virginia. The notice of con test for a seat in the House must be filed within thirty days from the Issuance of the certificate by the Governor to the member declared elected by the State Board of Canvassers. There is, however, a great deal of Republican talk about contests from Virginia, which is absolutely meaningless and absurd. Dr. Dick Wise is reported as saying that he has better grounds for a contest now than he had in 1896; Thorp is a persistent contestant, but this time his case is onsidered hopeless; Parr, who is a mai contractor, will hardly contest the elechandsome majority, and subject himself to the ridicule of the country; Walker who has dug his political grave, is re-ported as saying he will contest Rhea's election, but he will think better of it before the limit expires. There is n talk of a contest in the Tenth District. THE TRIGG ENTERPRISE.

Mr. William R. Trigg, of Richmond, was a visitor at the Navy Department to-day, accompanied by his counsel, Hon. Cou-nally F. Trigg. The two gentlemen had a very pleasant and satisfactory interview cretary Long and Assistant Secre tary Allen.
The attempt on the part of disappointed ship-builders and other rivals to have Mr. Trigg's contract for the torpedo-boats annulled, signally falled. Secretary Long and the naval authorities are perfectly well aware of the ability of the Trigg Ship-Building Company to estab-lish a plant and complete its contracts within the specified time.

EUTLER NOT TO BE GOVERNOR. There is no foundation in fact for the story floated to-day that Major-General Matthew C. Butler will be made military governor of Cuba. He has been ordered governor of Cuba. He has been ordered here merely for temporary duty at the War Department, and at the completion of that service he will resume his duties with the Evacuation Commission in Ha-bana. General Lee will, if there is any such office, be the military governor of Cuba. His knowledge of the people and is extensive, while Butler's is

The career of Grant C. Gillett has been of the sky-rocket order. He is but 31 years old, and his operations have startled the most conservative stockmen. Four years ago he lived on a mortgaged quarse of Canada, her most imports which admits imports triain at 25 per cent. less are admitted from the and other countries. It is did not on the suggestion, at within the last three years. Its methods within the last three years. Its methods were as novel as they were daring. So Secretary for the Colonies, he seemed to have unlimited credit. He is arging other Colonies of bought great droves of cattle in Texas and brought them north for sale and feeding. Then he organized his celebrated in his employ, and when he rode about the country in his special car he tool band of musicians with him. He even took them into eastern cities, where they nttracted much attention.

Mr. Gillett is said to have recently taken out $237.000 of life insurance and
